

Media

The Florida Humanities Council is committed to the development of media content that shines a spotlight on the issues, people, and places of interest to Floridians. Please explore our various offerings and join the conversation!

FORUM Magazine

Through its insightful perspectives on Florida, from early history to current events, our award winning FORUM magazine provides readers with engaging and colorful stories and the people and places that define our state. The magazine is published twice annually and mailed to over 15,000 people statewide.

Delve into FORUM Magazine

Florida Stories Walking Tour App

Our free and downloadable walking tours allow participants to learn about the history of some of Florida's most unique towns at their own pace and on their own schedule.

Listen here, these streets have something to tell

Humanities Now

Our blog, Humanities Now, sits at the intersection of current events and dynamic topics related to the study of the humanities. Check it out and add your thoughts!

Join in our conversation about Florida

Listen to Florida: Audio Archive

The Florida Humanities Council is proud to have sponsored and helped create over 500 audio programs over the years. We hope you enjoy these lively five-minute or more features on Florida's cultural heritage, history, important people, fascinating places, literary life, art, and philosophical commentary.

Jump into our audio archive

Watch Florida: Documentary Archive

Enjoy these wonderful and in-depth video explorations of Florida's history, culture, and future. All were funded by grants from the Florida Humanities Council. Please explore!

Watch now, explore Florida