

Partnership Programs

The Florida Humanities Council's programming seeks to engage Floridians with humanities content that both stirs curiosity and affects people's everyday lives. From our community project grants and engaging speaker series, to our exhibition partnership with the Smithsonian Institution and reading and discussion programs, we aim to bring Floridians together.

PrimeTime Family Reading Time

PrimeTime is a six-week reading and discussion program for families with young children. Held in public libraries, this program demonstrates how literature can enrich one's life, models strategies for continued family bonding and reading at home, and provides critical information on library resources.

Summer Seminars for High School Students

Each summer rising high school juniors and seniors participate in our immersive, pre-college humanities seminars at one of Florida's premiere Universities. Students spend a week engaged in challenging and interdisciplinary study of the humanities by combining classroom sessions with relevant field experiences.
