Program Title: *	The African Presence in Spanish Florida: Black Seminoles
Program Description: Write your description as you would in other publicity materials. *	African slaves have often risked life and limb to escape southern slavery, but their options for sanctuary were extremely limited. Some fled to the Caribbean, while others fled south and joined forces with the Seminoles. Dr. Rosalyn Howard will examine the African influence on Florida's iconic tribe, as well as the related Caribbean diaspora.
