

Florida Humanities Speakers Directory

Engaging Speakers

Compelling Topics

Thought-provoking
Discussions

Sharon Austin

Scholar

Sharon Austin is an American political scientist, currently a professor of political science at the University of Florida, where she was also a longtime Director of the African-American Studies Program. Austin is a prominent scholar of American politics with specialties in African-American studies, political participation, and both urban and rural local politics.

Program(s) Available:

African American Politics

An examination of the social and political relationships among African Americans and people of black Caribbean descent. Other topics include Haitian political behavior, general African American political behavior, and the history and politics of black women. Presentation tailored to audience interest.

Contact Information:

352-273-3060

polssdw@ufl.edu

Program Format:

- In-person
- Virtual

Need to reach Florida Humanities? For Grants, contact Lindsey Morrison at lmorrison@flahum.org, for Florida Talks, contact Lisa Lennox at lennox@flahum.org. For more information about the Florida Humanities Speakers Directory, visit <https://floridahumanities.org/speakers>.

Funding for this program was provided through a grant from the Florida Humanities with funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of Florida Humanities or the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Updated: September 2020