

Florida Humanities Speakers Directory

Engaging Speakers

Compelling Topics

Thought-provoking
Discussions

Barbara Mennel

Scholar

Professor Barbara Mennel holds a joint appointment in the German section of the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures and the Film Studies Program and the Feminisms, Genders, & Sexualities tracks in the English Department. Her research interests include transnational cinematic practices, feminist and queer theory, and the intersection of urban studies and film studies. At UF, she has been awarded the University of Florida Foundation Research Professorship (2018-21) and the Waldo W. Neikirk Professorship (2014-20). She is the author of several books.

Programs Available

The City on Screen

An examination of the development of cities on screen. Silent films depicted cities as incarnations of modernity. With the invention of light-weight cameras, films in the mid-century entered the streets of Rome, Paris, and Berlin showing movement through the avenues of the metropolis. At the turn of the 21st century, images of megacities, such as Mumbai and Rio de Janeiro, circulated on the global film market as crime-ridden dystopian visions.

Contact Information:

352-328-6510

mennel@ufl.edu

Program Format:

- Virtual

Need to reach Florida Humanities? For Grants, contact Lindsey Morrison at lmorrison@flahum.org, for Florida Talks, contact Lisa Lennox at llennox@flahum.org. For more information about the Florida Humanities Speakers Directory, visit <https://floridahumanities.org/speakers>.

Funding for this program was provided through a grant from the Florida Humanities with funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of Florida Humanities or the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Updated: September 2020