Eligibility

Before completing your letter of intent, please read the grant guidelines. Florida Humanities staff will review your LOI to determine if your proposed programming meets the grant requirements. If approved, you will be invited to submit a full application. Please note that an invitation to submit an application does not guarantee funding. Florida Humanities may request additional information before approval of your LOI. Letters of Interest are due at least six months before the first day of your proposed program.

For questions, please contact us at grants@flahum.org

View the detailed eligibility requirements in the guidelines.

- The organization applying for funding must be based in Florida and constituted for non-profit purposes or is a public agency, including colleges and universities. Fiscal sponsors are ineligible to apply.
- Your proposed festival has occurred before. Festivals in their first year of operation must be organized and hosted by or partnered with an established sponsoring organization that can demonstrate significant experience or a long-term commitment to literary-focused programming.
- Events ineligible for funding include fundraisers; celebrations for one author or cultural figure's literary achievements; music/art/cultural festivals where literature is not the main focus; and conferences that require a registration fee to attend and are not open to the public.

To the best of my knowledge, my organization meets the eligibility requirements.*
