

Florida Humanities Festival: South Florida March 8 - 9, 2024

March 8 - 6 to 8pm Historic Hampton House

Opening reception with welcome remarks, drinks,
and hors d'oeuvres

This two-day festival in Miami explores the literature, culture, music, cuisine, and history that shape the human experience of South Florida. Attendees will participate in lectures, panel discussions, film screenings, networking opportunities, grant workshops, and, of course, food, fun, and festivities!

March 9 - 9am to 5pm Little Haiti Cultural Center

Multiple sessions designed to connect humanities scholars, professionals, and enthusiasts through conversation, learning, and sharing. Engage in conversations that present how the humanities are being explored through art, literature, and digital avenues in South Florida.

YOUR SUPPORT

helps us fulfill our mission to preserve, promote and share the history, literature, cultures and personal stories that offer Floridians a better understanding of themselves, their communities and their state.

Connect with us!

@floridahumanities

@flhumanities

@flhumanities

Benefits	$500 Support Sponsor (multiple)	$1,000 Humanities Sponsor (multiple)	$2,500 Impact Sponsor (multiple)	$5,000 Event Co-Sponsor (two)	$10,000 Title Sponsor (one)
Premiere billing & opportunity to welcome guests
Full page ad space in one 2024 edition of FORUM magazine (valued at $1,900)
Logo featured on event signage & in a dedicated social media post
Half-page ad space in one 2024 edition of FORUM magazine (valued at $950)
Quarter-page ad space in one 2024 edition of FORUM magazine (valued at $475)
Logo featured in event program and all promotional material
Logo featured on Welcome signage at the event
Recognition on social media and in the Annual Report

Contact us to secure your sponsorship!

Nashid Madyun, Executive Director
 nmadyun@flahum.org
 727-873-2007

Mandy Cloninger
 mandy@relentlesspartner.com
 813-240-1377